Data Protection Privacy Notice – How we use your information

The legal bases upon which the Council will process your personal information are 'public task' because the processing is necessary for your official function as a Councillor and is in the public interest and legal obligation to ensure compliance with Chapter 7, Section 29 of the Localism Act 2011.

The information on this form is necessary to enable the Monitoring Officer to establish and maintain a register of interests of Members (including any co-opted Members) of the Parish Council. This Register of Members' Interests will be made available for inspection, published on the authority's website and shared with other Councillors and Officers unless an exemption is granted. Consequently, your disclosable pecuniary interests as well as those of your spouse, civil partner, person with you whom you are living as husband and wife/as civil partners will be in the public domain.

The Council will also use the information you provide to ensure it is accurate by comparing it to other information it holds and share it with other statutory organisations such as the Police, Government bodies and credit reference agencies to protect public funds, prevent/detect crime, data matching initiatives and/or where permitted by law. Your personal information will be processed in accordance with the GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018. Further details of how your information is used can be accessed on the Council's website:
