

BROUGHTON AND DALBY PARISH COUNCIL

Equality and Diversity Policy

1/ Introduction

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council is committed to providing and promoting equal opportunities, eliminating discrimination and encouraging diversity in the Community.

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council aims to create a culture that respects and values each other's differences and which promotes dignity, equality and diversity.

An up-to-date copy of this Policy shall be maintained on Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council website.

2/ Purpose

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council recognises that supporting equality is of primary importance. This policy will help Councillors and employees of the Council to develop sound and effective policies that impact on the local community, whilst ensuring that the Council meets its duty under the Equality Act 2010.

3/ Scope

This policy applies to all employees, volunteers, contractors and Councillors of Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council.

It is the responsibility of every employee and Councillor of Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council to ensure that they do not discriminate in any way. All employees and Councillors have a duty to uphold equal opportunities principles. Any breach of this policy will be dealt with appropriately.

4/ Equality Act 2010

The Equality Act 2010 applies to public bodies and others carrying out public functions. It supports good decision-making by ensuring public bodies consider how different people will be affected by the activities, policies and services provided.

The Equality Act 2010 places a Public Sector Duty on Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council to work to:

Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited under the Act

Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a protected characteristic and persons who don't share it

Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who don't share it

No individual will be discriminated against. This includes, but is not limited to the following characteristics (known as protected characteristics under the Act)

Age
Disability
Gender
Marital status and civil partnerships
Pregnancy and maternity
Race
Religion and beliefs
Sexual orientation
Ethnic origin
Nationality

5/ Equality Commitments

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council supports the principles and practices of the Equality Act 2010 and recognises that it is the duty of all Councillors and employees to accept their personal responsibility for fostering a fully integrated community at work by respecting and adhering to the principles of equality for all.

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council will actively promote equality throughout the organisation through the application of policies which will ensure that individuals receive treatment that is fair and equitable and consistent with their relevant aptitudes, potential, skills, experiences and abilities.

Broughton and Old Dalby Parish Council is committed to:

Promoting equality opportunity for all persons

Promoting a good and harmonious environment in which all persons are treated with respect and valued

Preventing occurrences of unlawful direct discrimination, indirect discrimination, harassment and victimization

Fulfilling its legal obligations under the Equality Act 2010
